Day by Day Itinerary

Tuesday, August 7 – FAIRFIELD GLADE / FREEPORT
This morning we depart Fairfield Glade and travel to Nashville International Airport as we take to the skies for Portland, Maine. On arrival, we’ll travel to the town of Freeport, located along the shores of Casco Bay. Although Freeport dates to 1789, shoppers would argue that it did not arrive on the scene until 1917, when the first L.L. Bean clothing store opened its doors to the public. (HD)

Wednesday, August 8 – FREEPORT / SAINT JOHN
Today we depart Freeport and set our sights on the Victorian town of Bar Harbor, a thriving waterside resort, home to quaint restaurants and charming shops that attract countless visitors. After lunch, we’ll continue our journey north before crossing the International Avenue bridge to New Brunswick, one of Canada’s three Maritime provinces. Our day will come to an end as we arrive in Saint John, the only city on the beautiful Bay of Fundy. (B,L,HD)

Thursday, August 9 – SAINT JOHN / YARMOUTH
Our day begins with a visit to the Old City Market followed by a view of the so-called reversing falls that take place on the Saint John River. This afternoon, we’ll depart St. John aboard the Princess of Acadia for the 3-hour ferry ride to Nova Scotia. Relax and immerse yourself in the beauty of the Bay of Fundy – at times like a nature cruise, as whales and other marine life spend their summers basking and breeding in the warm waters. On arrival in Digby, we’ll travel along the Acadian Coast to Yarmouth, located in the heart of the world’s largest lobster fishing grounds. (B,L)

Friday, August 10 – YARMOUTH / HALIFAX
This morning we depart Yarmouth and travel to the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Lunenburg, which has a long, proud seafaring history. Although Lunenburg is truly a walking town, we’ll enjoy a horse and carriage tour introducing us to its colorful heritage properties. Afterward, we’ll set aside time to explore the gift and artisan shops. Then we’ll continue to celebrate the timeless romance of the sea as we journey through an unforgettable landscape of coastal beauty following the South Shore’s scenic route to Peggy’s Cove. Home to a year-round population of a mere 60 people, this little fishing village is one of the most photographed places in Canada. Our day will come to an end as we arrive in Nova Scotia’s capital city of Halifax. (B,HD)

Saturday, August 11 – HALIFAX
Our day will begin with a tour of Halifax’s vibrant waterfront, three city blocks of Canada’s oldest waterfront warehouses that are home to a diverse collection of boutiques, pubs and restaurants. We’ll begin with a visit Canada’s newest National Historic Site, Pier 21. Afterward, we’re headed to the Halifax Public Gardens where we can stroll along the garden paths past gazebos, fountains and elegant flower beds bursting with color. Then we’ll travel to the top of Citadel Hill for a scenic view of the city and harbor, followed by a visit to the Citadel National Historic Site where Halifax’s distant military past comes to life. After lunch, we’ll travel to the Fairview Cemetery, perhaps best known as the final resting place for over one hundred victims of the sinking of the RMS Titanic. Our last stop of the day will take us back to Halifax’s waterfront for a visit to the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic, where we’ll learn about the Halifax explosion. (B,L)

Sunday, August 12 – HALIFAX / BADDECK
Today we depart Halifax and travel north along the Eastern Shore; a trip through old-world Nova Scotia, through towns and villages where life has changed little since the turn of the 20th century. Along the way, we’ll stop in the town of Sherbrooke to visit Sherbrooke Village. Located along the shores of the beautiful St. Mary’s River, Sherbrooke Village depicts a typical Nova Scotian village from 1860 to pre-WW1. Afterward, we’re headed north to Cape Breton Island. Our destination is the resort town of Baddeck set on the shores of Bras d’Or Lake. (B,RD)

Monday, August 13 – BADDECK
This morning we’ll visit the Alexander Graham Bell National Historic Site. Then we’ll explore the famous Cabot Trail, traveling through lochs and glens settled by Highlanders from Scotland, and along scenic coastlines settled by Acadians. We’ll visit the Keltic Lodge, one of the best authentic experiences in Canada. The historic 1950’s Main Lodge is a throwback to bygone days. Among the thousands of former Keltic staff, is world renowned songstress Anne Murray. We’ll also visit the quaint French village of Cheticamp, a busy fishing community with a thriving Acadian culture, famous for its authentic crafts made by the residents. (B,L)

Tuesday, August 14 – CHARLOTTETOWN
This morning we depart Baddeck and return to mainland Nova Scotia as we travel to Caribou for a ferry crossing of the Northumberland Strait to Prince Edward Island. On arrival at Wood Islands we’ll travel to Charlottetown, the smallest of Canadian provincial capitals. As we make our way through this charming city, laid out in the 1760s, we’ll see Charlottetown landmarks and historical sites including the Great George Street National Historic District, Province House, the seat of Prince Edward Island’s provincial legislature since 1847, stunning Victorian era homes, and beautiful Victoria Park. (B)

Wednesday, August 15 – CHARLOTTETOWN
Today we discover why visitor’s flock to Prince Edward Island as we traverse the rolling hills and pastoral countryside to Dalvay by the Sea, a national historic site, home to the Queen Anne Revival style hotel. We’ll take in the stunning vistas with lighthouses, mussel farms and fishing villages, on our way to Dunes, an Island icon with beautiful crafts and an incredible garden. Next, we’ll travel to North Rustico, the north shore Acadian fishing village founded around 1790, to see a working fishing community and learn about the lobster fishing industry. After lunch, we’ll enjoy a scenic drive through Prince Edward Island National Park on our way to Green Gables, which inspired Lucy Maud Montgomery’s novels about a red-haired orphan named Anne, and serves as an accurate portrayal of late 19th century island life. (B,L)

Thursday, August 16 – CHARLOTTETOWN / SAINT JOHN
This morning we depart Charlottetown and cross the Confederation Bridge. The bridge is an amazing eight miles long, making it the longest crossing over ice-covered water in the world. Our first stop will take us to Moncton, New Brunswick, where we’ll take in the natural phenomenon of Magnetic Hill, a naturally occurring perceptual illusion that will have you convinced our motor coach is actually rolling uphill. Then we’re headed to Fundy National Park, located along New Brunswick’s eastern shore, to visit the Hopewell Rocks, one of the best places to experience the highest tides in the world. At low tide, visitors can walk out over the Hopewell Rocks in search of marine treasures. Afterward, we’ll be on our way to Saint John. (B)
Friday, August 17 – SAINT JOHN / BOOTHBAY HARBOR
This morning we depart St. John and set our sights on Bangor, the Queen City of Maine, located on the western bank of the mighty Penobscot River. The proximity of the river made Bangor the “lumber capital of the world” for much of the 19th century, and no visit would be complete without a photo opportunity at the 31-foot high Paul Bunyan statue. This afternoon we’ll continue our journey south to the quintessential waterfront village of Boothbay Harbor, a favorite destination for travelers looking for charm, a rich boating heritage, specialty shops, and galleries. Simply put, one of the most beautiful harbors in Maine. (B,L,RD)

Saturday, August 18 – BOOTHBAY HARBOR / FAIRFIELD GLADE
As all good things must come to an end, this morning we depart Boothbay Harbor and travel to Portland’s International Jetport in preparation for the return journey home. No better time to reflect on memories of our Canadian Maritimes vacation that will last a lifetime and new friendships made along the way. (B)
