

1850's APPALACHIAN WEDDING!

September 10-11, 2018 (Monday & Tuesday)

Tour Director: Rosemary Stuckmann

If you enjoy laughing and having a good time, this is the tour for you! In 2007, we enjoyed a Mystery Tour to Kingsport, TN and we laughed until the tears rolled down our cheeks. The “Wedding” and also “The Dinner” at Allendale Mansion are somewhat repeats from that Mystery Trip.

Day 1: Board the deluxe motorcoach and travel to Kingsport, Tennessee where loads of interesting and fun times await. Our first adventure is to the largest park in Tennessee, which is a nature preserve, Bays Mountain Park. Depending upon availability, we will listen to the wolves howl; visit the planetarium show or take a barge ride. Enjoy a catered lunch at the park! This evening, tour the Allendale Mansion, referred to as “The White House of Kingsport.” Dinner is included and you never know who will show up for dinner at the “mansion.” Think of it as the most unusual rehearsal dinner that you could possibly imagine! Lodging: Hampton Inn, Kingsport, TN (L,D)

Wedding is tomorrow! See the next page.

Day 2 : Start your day, taking a ride on the beautiful Kingsport Carousel. Learn the story of how the carousel got to be! Excitement is building and the time has come for us to step into the 1850s for an Appalachian Wedding at Exchange Place, a living history farm. Way back then, this is where horses, money and stories were exchanged; today, we are going to a wedding where vows are exchanged for a life together forever and ever! Lunch will be catered following the ceremony so that you can mingle and congratulate the bride and our groom. We will then depart Kingsport, laughing all the way home, while reminiscing about our 1850s Appalachian Wedding. (CB,L)
